Chapter 1 by Anime_1633

In this world of the normal I was the abnormal. I wanted to run and I also had to. I was being chased by the normals. They hated me and I didn't know why they did. I was just a normal abnormal. Now what does that even make sense.... I don't care I just kept running. I ended up in the woods. I was surrounded by black trees and above me a white light that I couldn't explain. This white light would come and go. I couldn't feel my legs as I ran. How are these people even keeping up with me. I tried as hard as I could to not hit a tree. They were everywhere. I couldn't help there being trees everywhere. I wish I could but I like these trees. It makes it easier to lose the normals. You may be asking me what makes me so abnormal in the first place. Well shut up and I will tell you... Here in a minute I need to find a place to rest.

Ok. Im fine now. I found an old cabin her among the trees. I keep writing and writing and I wonder if anyone will read this. My journal. The one the abnormal likes to keep. "them" can eat --you know like drinking holy water at every meal that kinda thing-- but since I was half demon and half angel I could not just live on demon food. Dont even get me started on what that is -- you know when you eat an apple and you throw it away, we eat stuff like that--. So I went up " there" to get some food so I wouldn't you know die and everything when they chased me out. The trees that I explained were part of the Netherworld.

Netherworld- the path to the Underworld. The Netherworld connects Heaven and the Underworld.

I can't really stay up there for to long or go down to the Underworld to long. I'd be banished. I don't know where to but I really don't wanna find out. I just wanted some food and they ran me out. WAIT WAIT. I just remembered. I reached into my pocket and pulled out some of the "good food" I did snatch something but this wont las me long. This is awesome though I was full. Finally.

Anyway. We are gonna switch this story to her walking around instead of her writing now. Any further switches like this shall be marked with this *. Thanks
